

Improving the quality of provision and student achievement by embedding Skills for Life

Invitation to a Dissemination Workshop:
Principals, Chief Executives and Senior Management

Tuesday 27th March 10.00 – 13.15
KPMG Birmingham office, Seminar Room

By adopting a Whole Organisation Approach to Skills for Life over 30 pathfinder providers from across the country have improved their planning and delivery of Skills for Life.

As a respected senior manager in the sector, we would be delighted if you could join us at this leading edge event and be amongst the first to hear about how you too could benefit from adopting the same approach. The day will look in depth at the following areas:

Strategic planning

At the highest level, this event will help you focus on introducing changes to your organisation

Improved performance

You will have the opportunity to talk to senior managers from pathfinder organisations about how they turned strategy into results and the challenges, successes and benefits of adopting a whole organisation approach to Skills for Life.

The day will consist of brief, interactive presentations on individual pathfinder experiences, to be followed by discussions on how you could benefit from adopting some of these approaches. We very much hope you can attend this exciting event. Places are limited so please RSVP to Sara Mooney at KPMG. Lunch will be provided.

There will be no charge for this event.

To book a place on the event please email sara.mooney@kpmg.co.uk providing the following details:

- First and Surname of delegate
- Job Title
- Organisation
- Any special dietary requirement

Numbers are restricted on this event, therefore early booking for the event is recommended.
